Digital Disruption? Digital Records Information Management
29 May 2019 (RIMPA)

“Ten years ago, records and information management looked very different than it does today, and continues to evolve hand-in-hand with technology.

With the target date of the Digital Continuity 2020 Policy approaching quickly, digital transformation is on every agency’s radar, with many scrambling to implement change in order to align themselves with the new principles.”

The Northern Territory government has announced a Digital Partnerships grant program as one of the key initiatives in the NT's first-ever digital strategy.

The Digital Territory strategy was launched yesterday by the NT's minister for corporate and information services, Lauren Moss.

The government last year foreshadowed the strategy's launch, establishing an Office of Digital Government led by Sandie Matthews.

Technology and innovation

Media Release

The Andrews Labor Government is getting on with ensuring that government is making the best use of new digital technology to deliver modern services for the community.

Special Minister of State Gavin Jennings today joined key stakeholders at an Australian Information Industry Association event to launch the Labor Government's Information Technology Strategy 2016-2020.

This strategy kickstarts the process of digitising government services to ensure Victorians can better access everyday services anywhere, anytime – as well as giving frontline workers the tools they need to tackle challenges such as family violence and homelessness.

Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing

Let's start the conversation

Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing: Discussion paper

... estimate that over $40 million worth of groundwater data are not currently available

... under current legislation, these reports can only be made accessible through the relatively complex Freedom of Information processes.

The screenshot shows the 'data.wa.gov.au' website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text 'Search for data...' and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, the website header includes the Government of Western Australia logo and the text 'Providing access to WA government data'. Navigation links for 'Home', 'Data', and 'Toolkit' are visible. A secondary navigation bar contains 'Data Home', 'Datasets', 'Organisations', 'Groups', 'Showcases', and 'About'. The main content area is titled 'Datasets' and features a search input with the word 'water' and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, it states '251 datasets found for "water"' and 'Order by: Relevance'. Three dataset results are displayed:

- WaterCorp CIP Planned Assets Waste Water Points WCORP (WCORP-011): The Water Corporation CIP Planning Layer is a spatial dataset representing the spatial extent of the Water Corporation's 5 year capital investment program. All future water,...

- Medium Scale Topo Fuzzy Water (Polygon) (LGATE-101): The approximate extent of formally named hydrographic features that have relatively indistinct name extent.
- Contaminated Sites Database - Restricted (DWER-073): The Contaminated Sites Register dataset is a spatial representation of individual sites recorded and classified by the Department of Water and Environmental (DWER) under the...

Each result includes a list of available data formats such as GeoPackage, WFS, API ArcGIS Server Map Service, WMS, mpk, CSV, SHP, and GeoJSON. On the left side of the search results, there are filters for 'ACCESS LEVEL' (Open: 224, Fees Apply: 22, Government Use Only: 4, Mixed: 1) and 'FILTER BY LOCATION' (with a map of Australia). At the bottom left, there is an 'ORGANISATIONS' section listing the Department of Water and Environmental Regulation (87), Western Australian Marine Science Institution (48), and Water Corporation (32).
