

Office of the Information Commissioner

Freedom of information for Western Australia

LATEST NEWS - 2 October 2017

SECONDMENT OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

Interested in working with us and currently employed in the state public sector? Secondment opportunities for periods of up to 8 months may be available at the Office of the Information Commissioner (OIC) in the near future at Levels 2 to 6.

The main functions of the OIC are to deal with external review applications and to provide advice and awareness services to agencies and the public.

Roles that might become available are:

Level 2 Administrative Assistant

Level 3 Paralegal

Level 4/5 Review Officer

Level 6 Legal or Review Officer.

If you are interested in an administrative, paralegal or review/legal officer role, please specify which, and send us a (no more than) 2 page letter outlining your core values, your skill set and why you are interested in working with OIC, to: jobs@foi.wa.gov.au